Completion Guide (for the declaration on the beneficial owner and pep status)

1. Beneficial owner

As part of the Customer Due Diligence process, we request you to define the beneficial owners and the nature of their ownership interest in your declaration, applying the following definitions. Please indicate every natural person meeting the content of the table below in your declaration as beneficial owner.

Please note that if the beneficial owners may not be clearly defined on the basis of the certificate of incorporation, other corporate documents and authentic records available in relation to the client and the companies having an ownership interest in the client, then KELER CCP may instruct its Client to present further documents in order to certify the contents of the declaration.

	Beneficial owner
a)	any natural person who owns or controls at least twenty-five per cent of the shares or voting rights in a legal person or an unincorporated organization directly or - by way of the means defined in Section 8:2 (4) of the Act on the Civil Code (hereinafter referred to as " Civil Code ") - indirectly, or who is able to exercise effective control over the legal person or unincorporated organization via other means, if that legal person or unincorporated organization is not listed on a regulated market and is subject to disclosure requirements consistent with Community legislation or subject to equivalent international standards,
b)	any natural person who has dominant influence in a legal person or unincorporated business association as defined in Section 8:2(2) of the Civil Code *,
c)	any natural person on whose behalf a transaction is being conducted, or who is able to exercise effective control over the activity of a customer via other means in the case of natural persons,
d)	in the case of foundations the natural person who
da)	is the beneficiary of at least twenty five per cent of the assets of the foundation provided that the future beneficiaries have already been defined,
db)	in whose interest the foundation has been created or is operated if the beneficiaries have not yet been defined, dc)	who is a member of the managing body of the foundation, or has dominant influence over at least twenty five per cent of the assets of the foundation, or
dd)	in the absence of the natural person referred to in Subparagraphs da)-dc), the person proceeding on behalf of the foundation,
e)	in the case of fiduciary asset management contracts: ea)	the principal, and the beneficial owner referred to in Paragraph a) or b) thereof,
eb)	the fiduciary, and the beneficial owner referred to in Paragraph a) or b) thereof, ec)	the beneficiaries or class of beneficiaries, and the beneficial owner referred to in Paragraph a) or b) thereof, furthermore
ed)	the natural person exercising effective control over the trust fund via other means
ee)	where appropriate, the person(s) controlling the asset management; in the case of non-natural person controlling the asset management, the beneficial owner thereof as referred to in Paragraph a) or b), and
f)	in the absence of the natural person referred to in Paragraphs a) and b), the executive officer of the legal person or unincorporated business association.

* Section 8:2 (2) of the Civil Code

The holder of a participating interest is deemed to have dominant influence on a legal person if it is a member of or shareholder in that company and:

- it has the right to appoint and recall the majority of the executive officers or supervisory board members of the legal person; or
- other members of or shareholder in that legal person are committed under agreement with the holder of a participating interest to vote in concert with the holder of a participating interest, or they exercise their voting rights through the holder of a participating interest, provided that together they control more than half of the votes.
